SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Year C

4 to 5 December 2021

REFLECTION

Baruch 5: 1-9 Psalm 126: 1-6 Philipians 1:4-6, 8-11 Luke 3:1-6

Today's Psalm paints a dreamlike scene—a road filled with liberated captives heading home to Zion (Jerusalem), mouths filled with laughter, tongues rejoicing. Remembering that “the Lord has done great things” in the past, the psalmist is making an act of faith and hope—that God will come to Israel in its present need, that He'll do even greater things in the future. This is what the Advent readings are all about: We recall God's saving deeds—in the history of Israel and in the coming of Jesus. Our remembrance is meant to stir our faith, to fill us with confidence that, as today's Epistle puts it, “the one who began a good work in [us] will continue to complete it” until He comes again in glory. The lessons of salvation history should teach us that, as God again and again delivered Israel, in His mercy, He will free us from our attachments to sin if we turn to Him in repentance. That's the message of John, introduced in today's Gospel as the last of the great prophets. But John is greater than the prophets. He's preparing the way not only for a new redemption of Israel but for the salvation of “all flesh”.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen
