Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year B

13 to 14 November 2021

Remembrance Day

World Day of the Poor

Daniel 12: 1–3;

Psalms 15 (16);

Hebrews 10: 11–14,18;

Mark 13: 24–32

As the Church's year draws to a close, the readings this Sunday speak both of endings and eternal beginnings. All of them offer hope and direction to communities living in the midst of turbulent change and uncertainty. In the First Reading the Prophet Daniel offers hope of resurrection to a people facing persecution for their faith. In the Second Reading, we are taught that there is no longer any need for the ancient offering sacrifices for the forgiveness of sin. Christ is our one Eternal Priest and offers us a life of forgiveness and freedom from the burden of sin. In the Gospel Jesus is preparing his disciples for a time of loss, tribulation, change, and ultimately the new life of Resurrection. Although dramatic change will soon fall upon him and the disciples, Jesus's teaching also reminds us that it is the nature of our world always to be facing moments of death and resurrection. With COP26 Climate Summit we are called to be instruments of bringing new life to mother earth. May we face these challenging times with confidence.

REMEMBERING THE DEAD IN NOVEMBER

November is a time to pray & give thanks for all those who have been an important part of our lives but are sadly no longer with us. Envelopes containing a blank form are available in the Narthex for anyone wishing to submit names of their loved ones for prayers during November. Please leave the envelopes with the list of names in the basket in front of the altar. Every Tuesday in November names submitted in the week will be read at 9.15am Mass. An offering in the envelope is welcome but not required.

A Parish Mass for all those who have died in the last year will be celebrated at 7pm on Thursday, 18th November. If you wish to submit names of your family or friends please submit their names to the parish office. Their names will also be written in our book of remembrance. A candle will be prepared for each of the deceased and if you wish you can make a donation of £1 for the candle. These candles will be blessed and lit at the Mass on the day and you will be asked to carry them to the sanctuary during the Mass. They may be taken home after the Mass.
