POPE FRANCIS REFLECTION ON PRIESTLY MINISTRY

"Priests also have a history, they are not 'mushrooms' which sprout up suddenly in the cathedral on the day of their ordination.....What is born with the people must stay with the people. The priest is always 'among other men': he is not a professional of pastoral ministry or evangelisation, who arrives and does what he has to do – perhaps well, but as if it were a profession like any other – before then going away and living a life apart. One becomes a priest in order to stay in the midst of the people," Pope Francis, Vatican City, Nov 22, 2015 / 06:02 am

Catenian Awards for St Joseph's Schoolchildren

Last week Brother John Duddington, former President of Malvern Catenians, distributed the prizes to award winning children of our school including prizes for regular attendance and most improvement during the term. In attendance on the day were the school Head, Mrs Therese Langford and staff, several parents and all of the school children. The awards included a silver trophy and £10 vouchers to be spent by award winners. This is now a regular contribution by the Catenians to the life of the school as well as a programme of talks by Catenian Circle members on their various careers which will hopefully give the children some inspiration as to future career options.
