THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday of the Word of God

Year A

21st – 22nd January 2023

REFLECTION

Matthew 4:12-23

John the Baptist's enemies had sought to silence him, but the gospel cannot be silenced. As soon as John was imprisoned Jesus began his preaching in Galilee. He takes up John's message of repentance and calls disciples to believe in the good news he has come to deliver. Jesus chose very ordinary people as his friends and co-workers. They were non-professionals and had no wealth or position of power or fame in society. They were chosen from the common people who did ordinary things, had no special marks of education, and no social advantages. Jesus wanted ordinary people who could take an assignment and do it extraordinarily well. He chose these individuals, not for what they were, but for what they would be capable of becoming under his direction and power. When the Lord calls us to be his disciples and co-workers, we must not think we have nothing to offer him in exchange. The Lord takes what ordinary people, like us, can offer and uses it for greatness in his kingdom. Do you believe that God wants to work through and in you for his glory? Help me to follow you and do what is pleasing in your sight"
