THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday of the Word of God

Year C

22ND – 23RD January 2022

REFLECTION

Nehemiah 8:2-6, 8-10

Psalms 18

1 Cor 12:12-30

Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21

On this 'Sunday of the Word of God', we are invited to deepen our relationship with the Lord through our devotion and dedication to reading and praying with scripture. In each reading, we hear how the Spirit of the Lord revives, liberates, sustains, unites and gives life. In the First Reading the law of the Lord is read out by Ezra, and the people are taught to celebrate it. In the psalm each line is a litany of the comfort, joy and strength that can be drawn from the Word of God. In the second reading Paul teaches that although the Christian community is very diverse, with different strengths and perspectives, we are all united in the Spirit of the Lord through our baptism. In the Gospel Jesus, filled with the spirit of the Lord, reads from the word of God and proclaims that Isaiah's prophecy is embodied and fulfilled in him. Jesus liberates, heals, transforms and brings good news. As followers of Jesus, we belong to a living, transforming community of believers united by our baptism.

Deacon Steven Fleming

Deacon Steven returns to Oscott Saturday to complete the last 6 months of his training for the priesthood. In his short time at St Joseph's he has made thought-provoking sermons, attended One World Group, Gospel Share and PAC meetings, joined in collective worship at the school, visited parishioners, offered Services of Eucharistic of Healing and taken a pastoral interest in parishioners' lives. He has also donned the collar and ventured into Whetherspoons and The Unicorn to engage locals on questions of faith as part of his pub ministry. There will be a second collection for Deacon Steven after Masses this weekend to thank him for his service to us this month.
