THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME World Mission Day

Year C

22nd to 23rd October 2022

REFLECTION

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18 Psalm 34 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18 Luke 18: 9-14

The parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector in today's gospel is addressed to "those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else." There is a sharp contrast between the Pharisee and the Tax Collector. The Pharisee in his prayer showers himself with praises and congratulation for his own deeds, which he presents to God in great detail, whereas the tax collector stands at a distance, too ashamed even to raise his eyes to God. He prays with a humble and contrite heart. He knows that before God no one is righteous, and no one has cause to boast. In the words of the first reading, we see in the Liturgy today that a humble man's prayer pierces the clouds and that God "knows no favourites." God cannot be bribed with our good deeds or our faithful observance of religious duties such as tithing and fasting. Perhaps the lesson here is that goodness that leads to moral slumber can bear evil fruits just as the sin that awakens our conscience can bear the good fruit of humility and mercy.

OCTOBER: DEANERY VOCATIONS MONTH

October has been designated as the Deanery Vocations month in which, as a parish, we are requested to pray, explore, promote and celebrate the various vocations to which we are all called. All the Rosaries we are going to recite before the weekend Masses in October will be directed to praying for vocations. All Masses will close with the Diocesan Prayer for Vocations.

MASS OFFERINGS We are low on Mass requests at this time. An individual may ask for Mass for several reasons such as Thanksgiving or intentions for another person on such occasions as birthdays or anniversaries of all kinds; most commonly for someone who has died and for someone who is sick. The Mass offering is one way of supporting the priest who says the Mass. The standard offering in the diocese is £10 but Mass requests are, all the same, acceptable even without the Mass Offering. Mass Offering envelopes are available in the Narthex.

GIFT AID REQUESTS If you Gift Aid to St Joseph's and your tax status has changed/changes OR If you have changed address since you were set up on Gift Aid please would you notify our Gift Aid co-ordinator, Mary Marsh? contact email is ga.stjoseph.malvern@rcaob.org.uk
