THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Year B

23 to 24 October 2021

World Mission Day

REFLECTION

Jeremiah 31: 7–9;

Psalms 125 (126);

Hebrews 5: 1–6;

Mark 10: 46–52

The readings this week challenge us to reflect both on the ways we might be blind, and on the gift of new vision that is offered freely. In the First Reading, the prophet Jeremiah speaks of a God who gathers his people to heal them. The Psalm sings of these and other wonderful works: 'The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy'. The Second Reading shows that the high priest is one called by God to deal gently with the people, because he himself knows weakness. And in the Gospel, Jesus calls Bartimaeus, a blind beggar of Jericho, to him into discipleship. Though blind, Bartimaeus already has insight into who Jesus is and, when he hears him pass by, shouts in desperation even when told to be quiet. For Bartimaeus, Jesus is now 'Master', and his relationship with him brings healing and new life. Let's pray, this week, that we might recognise the great things the Lord works for us, and that our hope lies in God, who calls to us through our weaknesses and limitations.

Loving God,

we praise Your name with all You have created.

You are present in the whole universe,
and in the smallest of creatures.

We acknowledge the responsibility You have placed upon us as stewards of your creation.

May the Holy Spirit inspire all political leaders at CoP26 as they seek to embrace the changes needed to foster a more sustainable society.

Instil in them the courage and gentleness to implement fairer solutions for the poorest and most vulnerable, and commit their nations to the care of Our Common Home.

We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ your Son.

Amen.
