TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Year C

24th to 25th September 2022

REFLECTION

Amos 6:1, 4-7 Psalm 145 1 Timothy 6:11-16 Luke 16:19-31

Our society & the wider world are places of extremes. We have the very wealthy and the desperately poor. This Sunday's gospel puts the abundance of the rich man and the poverty of Lazarus. The rich and powerful are visited with woe and exile in today's Liturgy—not for their wealth but for their refusal to share it, not for their power but their indifference to the suffering at their door. In this world, the rich and powerful make a name for themselves and dine sumptuously, while the poor remain anonymous, and refused an invitation to their feasts. But notice that the Lord today knows Lazarus by name, while the rich man has no name. Every day, in countless small ways, we are asked to look beyond our own needs to see the needs of others. It is said that for evil to thrive all that is needed is that good people do nothing. This week, let us look beyond our needs and see where we can help another person and make a difference.

She has worked with bishops, priests, seminarians and in parishes in the UK and the USA and travels to Rome to support and advise various committees on the faith.

This weekend the second collection will be for Father Hudson's Care for their mission of supporting vulnerable people throughout the Archdiocese of Birmingham. Father Hudson's reaches out to people of all ages who need support many of whom will be badly affected by the cost-of-living crisis. Please give generously to this worthy cause.

MISSIO Fran Mainini has taken over the Missio Red Box Local Secretary for St Joseph's. Our donations for Missio are used by missionaries throughout the world who give witness to God's love in many different ways, delivering food to victims of natural disasters, providing education to those who have no such opportunities, basic health care in places where there is none and peace-making efforts in areas of violent conflict. Some of you may still have Red Boxes in your homes and collectors will be contacting you to collect these. However, as we use cash less and less these days there are other ways to donate which are detailed on a postcard that I will be handing out at the end of Mass. You may also donate online at <https://missio.org.uk/> Thank you for your support for Missio.

Understanding sacred Art. Carol Ann Harnett is hosting a zoom session on Understanding Sacred art, on Wednesday 5th october from 7.30-9.00pm. Cost is £8 and if anyone is interested please email Carol Ann on catholic1812@gmail.com for further details.

October, Month of the Holy Rosary If anyone would like to host the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary for a week in October please sign the sheet in the narthex. The statue is used as a focal point of saying the rosary each day. Hosts are invited to ask others to join them as they say the rosary.

Relics of St Bernadette Tour The relics will be visiting St Chad's Cathedral in Birmingham, Our Lady of Lourdes in Hednesford and the Immaculate Conception in Bicester over the weekend of 7 - 10 October. Please take a look at the timetable for the three venues and choose when and where you'd like to venerate the relics, and/or attend special Masses. Please register the time you wish to attend. <https://www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk/stbernadette>

Vacancy, Head of Safeguarding The Archdiocese of Birmingham is seeking a Head of Safeguarding. The post holder will manage the operations of the safeguarding team, who operate in accordance with the statutory framework and the Catholic Church's safeguarding policies and procedures. Following a period of significant change and improvement, now is an exciting time for an experienced safeguarding professional to join this friendly and creative team to further develop and embed excellence in safeguarding practice. This will be a rewarding role for an experienced safeguarding professional. Closing date 3 October. To find out more, please go to www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk/jobs

THURSDAY ADORATION It is so encouraging that a lot of people come to spend some time in Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays between 10 am and 6.45 pm. However, we still need people to commit themselves to cover slots to ensure that there is an unbroken presence of people throughout the day. If you would like to cover a slot please contact Emily at 07858 048095.

Invitation to Stella Maris webinar: Thank you for your recent generous support for seafarers and fishers on Sea Sunday. As a follow up, Catholic charity Stella Maris invites you to join a webinar on Tuesday 27th September from 7.30pm to 9pm GMT to learn more about the issue of seafarer abandonment, and how donations like yours on Sea Sunday are supporting those in crisis. If you would like to attend, please register in advance at www.stellamaris.org.uk/abandonment
