TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Year B

28 – 29 August 2021

REFLECTION

Today we trace the full development of God's intention for the Law. We hear in the book of Deuteronomy how close this brings the people of Israel to the Lord God – it is a testimony of love unknown to other races. Saint James, as recorded in Paul's letter to the Galatians, continued to value the Jewish history and way of life, and so, employs imagery from nature and the corresponding rituals to relate to his readers. The notion of the initial generation of believers being "a sort of first-fruits" refers to the first sheaf of spring wheat that was cut from the field and offered to God in their day. Now Christ has become the perfect offering acceptable to God, fulfilling every prior condition of the Law. What Mark the Evangelist wishes to communicate is just how easy observing even a multitude of legal requirements is instead of taking its purpose to heart. Religion consists not in piety but in putting one's beliefs into action so that our outward expression is harmonised with our inner world. This can be a good practice to recall when going to confession. Whatever our actions, they spring from the heart, which day by day we strive to open as best we can to God and others. This is the new law – the law of love, from which all else flows.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion for the Year of St Joseph

Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, Son of God and Son of Mary, through the intercession of St Joseph, your earthly Guardian and guardian of the Church, unite us with the gift of your real presence, your Sacrament and Sacrifice, which feeds your Church along the path of holiness. Amen.

Since the start of lockdown in 2021, Fr Naz & selected parishioners have been writing daily reflections that are posted on the website. As the Parish is starting to emerge from COVID restrictions, we're reviewing whether this is still something the Parish needs. If you routinely read the reflections, could you email the Parish Office at stjoseph.malvern@rcaob.org.uk with your thoughts? If you enjoy them, this is an opportunity to say thanks to the contributors. Please let us know, as there's a finite upkeep to keep these written and maintained, and we need to ensure it's still a valuable service.

Please pray for the soul of Marie O'Connor †, Helen O'Connor's mother. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord.
