FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday of the Word of God

Year C

29TH – 30TH January 2022

REFLECTION

Jeremiah 1: 4-5, 17-19 Psalm 7: 1-6, 15-17 1 Corinthians 12: 31-13:-13 Luke 4: 21-30

In today's Gospel, the crowd in His hometown synagogue quickly turns on Jesus, apparently demanding a sign, some proof of divine origins—that He's more than just "the son of Joseph." The sign He gives them is that of the prophets Elijah and Elisha. Jesus draws two stories in which the prophets bypass "many . . . in Israel" to bestow God's blessings on non-Israelites who had faith that the prophets were men of God. "None . . . not one" in Israel was found deserving, Jesus emphasizes. They know He's likening them to the "many . . . in Israel" in the days of the prophets. That's why they try to shove Him off the cliff. As God promised to protect Jeremiah, the Lord delivers Jesus from those who would crush Him. And as were Elijah and Elisha, Jesus is sent to proclaim God's gift of salvation—not exclusively to one nation or people, but to all who realize in faith that God alone is their hope, their rescuer, their "rock of refuge," as we sing in today's Psalm.

SAVE THE DATE

Divine Renovation and Alpha Event:
What is God Saying to the Church?

Tues 1st March from 6pm to 8pm
in the McEnnis Room at St Joseph's

As a follow up to last Sunday's Parish Meeting, all are encouraged to attend this live online event to inspire us in our work in parish renewal, mission and evangelisation. As we slowly emerge into a post-pandemic world, mission-minded parish leaders know we have an incredible opportunity to recommit our energies to finding bold and new ways to evangelise. But there are important questions many are wrestling with:

- What is the most urgent call for the Church?
- What have the past two years revealed about the Church and how she is fulfilling her mission?
- What are we being called to repent of, to turn from, and to turn towards?

Join Fr James Mallon, Bishop Robert Barron and Rev Nicky Gumbel for a conversation on What is God Saying to the Church? This is a FREE online event. If you would like to watch from home, register at:
