THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Year C REFLECTION

29th to 30th October 2022

Wisdom 11:22-12:2

Psalms 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14

2 Thessalonians 1:11-22

Luke 19:1-10

The First Reading tells us that God overlooks men's sins so that they may repent and not perish in their sinfulness. That image of God is reflected in Jesus who looks up at the sycamore tree commanding the Zacchaeus who lived by fraud to come down. Even before Jesus commands him to come down, Zacchaeus' faith brings salvation to his own house. He expresses his faith in his fervent desire to "see" Jesus, even humbling himself to climb a tree just to have a glimpse of Jesus pass by. While those of loftier religious stature react to Jesus with grumbling, Zacchaeus receives Him with joy. Zacchaeus is not like the other rich men Jesus meets or tells stories about. He repents, vowing to pay restitution to those he has cheated and to give half of his money to the poor. We are also called to seek Jesus daily with repentant hearts. And we should make Paul's prayer in today's Epistle our own: that God might make us worthy of His calling, that by our lives we might give glory to the name of Jesus.

MASS OFFERINGS We are low on Mass requests at this time. An individual may ask for Mass for several reasons such as Thanksgiving or intentions for another person on such occasions as birthdays or anniversaries of all kinds; most commonly for someone who has died and for someone who is sick. The Mass offering is one way of supporting the priest who says the Mass. The standard offering in the diocese is £10 but Mass requests are, all the same, acceptable even without the Mass Offering. Mass Offering envelopes are available in the Narthex.

ANNUAL COLLECTION FOR THE JOHNSON ASSOCIATION Next week we have a second collection for The Johnson Association which exists for the support of the Diocesan of the Archdiocese of Birmingham who on account of age, infirmity or sickness need financial help. Donations can be made using the gift aid envelopes available in the Narthex. Please take it home and return it next week. you can also donate via the website at www.johnsonassociation.org or using the QR code on your smartphone. The sick and retired clergy of the diocese thank you for your generosity in supporting them through your donation.

SAVE THE DATE On Sunday 4th December at 10am we will have a special Mass focussed on young people & families. EVERYONE IS WELCOME. This will be followed by a quiz in church and a bring-and-share lunch in the McEnnis Room. Please contact Suzie Wolff on 07939511177 if you would like to have a role in the Mass or the puppet show. There will be a puppet show rehearsal on Sun 6th Nov after 10am Mass.
