EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR A

1 August – 2 August 2020

REFLECTION

Isaiah 55:1-3      Romans 8:35, 37-39      Matthew 14:13-21

This story of Jesus' feeding of the 5,000 brims with allusions to the Old Testament. Jesus is portrayed as a David-like shepherd who leads His flock to lie down on green grass as He spreads the table of the Messiah's banquet before them. Jesus is shown as a new Moses, who likewise feeds vast crowds in a deserted place. Finally, Jesus is shown doing what the prophet Elisha did—satisfying the hunger of the crowd with a few loaves and having some left over. Matthew also wants us to see the feeding of the 5,000 as a sign of the Eucharist. Notice that Jesus performs the same actions in the same sequence as at the Last Supper—He takes bread, says a blessing, breaks it, and gives it. Before He performs the miracle, Jesus instructs the Twelve to give the crowd "some food yourselves." This must be the ministry of the Twelve. Indeed, the Apostles themselves distribute the bread blessed by Jesus. And the leftovers are enough to fill precisely 12 baskets—corresponding to each of the Apostles, the pillars of the Church.

If you cannot attend Mass, you may make an Act of Spiritual Communion by saying:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. AMEN.

THURSDAY EXPOSITION

Taking into account requests I have had on partial resumption of the All-Day Thursday Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, I have resolved an allowance of a limited exposition from 1pm till 6.45pm every Thursday until things come to a normality of some kind. This will start with Thursday, 30th July in the Aldwin Room. Those who wish to spend time before the Blessed Sacrament must book with Emily Vaughan-Spruce (tel: 07858048095). A maximum of three people can pray before the Blessed Sacrament at any one time. Please follow the procedure of sanitisation on entry and exit of the Aldwin room. Emily and others appointed by her will be responsible for cleaning up after the exposition. There will be no benediction to end exposition. Fr Naz.
