TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Year C

3rd to 4th September 2022

REFLECTION

Wisdom 9:13-18

Psalms 89

Philemon 9-10, 12-17

Luke 14:25-33

Our Lord today is addressing anyone of us who wishes to come to him. We are to “hate” our father, mother, brother, and sisters, as well as renounce all the earthly things we rely upon. We have to choose him, not only above every person but also above everything we possess. Our family bonds and possessions should not stand in the way of giving ourselves totally to him. It is no use to be weighed down by many earthly concerns. He is calling upon us to see beyond our family ties and the things of this world. Like Onesimus in today’s letter to Philemon, we have been given a new family and a new inheritance. We are free now to come after Him, to serve Him—no longer slaves to the ties of our past lives. In Christ, all our yesterdays have passed. We live in what the Psalm today beautifully describes as the daybreak, ready to be filled with His kindness. For He has given us the wisdom of the heart and taught us to number our days aright.

The monthly Lyttelton Well Quiz Night will be on Saturday 10th September. Teams of four will be competing for almost fabulous prizes. People arriving in ones and twos who are not part of a team will be helped to join or form teams. The quiz format allows several opportunities to win prizes – it isn't winner takes all - the object of the evening is sociability and fun rather than trying to find masterminds. The Lyttelton Rooms will be open from 7 o'clock and the quiz will get going at about 7.30, once we have settled everyone into teams. The cost is £2.50 per head plus a contribution for tea, coffee, cake and biscuits etc. Funds raised will be used for the benefit of The Well Counselling Service.
