FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR A

4 July – 5 July 2020

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus is portrayed in today's Gospel as a new and greater Moses. Moses, the meekest man on earth (Numbers 12:3), was God's friend (Exodus 34:12,17). Only he knew God "face to face" (Deuteronomy 34:10). And Moses gave Israel the yoke of the Law, through which God first revealed Himself and how we are to live. Jesus too is meek and humble. But He is more than God's friend. He is the Son who alone knows the Father. He is more also than a law-giver, presenting Himself today as the yoke of a new Law, and as the revealed Wisdom of God. In the gracious will of the Father, Jesus reveals these things only to the "childlike"—those who humble themselves before Him as little children. These alone can recognize and receive Jesus as the just saviour and meek king promised to daughter Zion, Israel, in today's First Reading. We too are called to childlike faith in the Father's goodness, as sons and daughters of the new kingdom, the Church. We are to put to death our old ways of thinking and acting, as Paul exhorts in today's Epistle. Our "yoke" is to be His new law of love, by which we enter into the "rest" of His kingdom.

REOPENING CHURCHES FOR HOLY MASS

St Joseph's will open for Mass from Monday 6 July. Masses in bold on the other side of this Bulletin will be open to parishioners. Two stewards will greet parishioners at the entrance 15 minutes before each Mass. If you would like to volunteer as a steward, please contact Sue Stubbings on 01684 541716. If we do not have stewards for a Mass, then the church will remain closed for that service.

MAKE AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

If you cannot attend Mass, you may make an Act of Spiritual Communion by saying:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. AMEN.

Hear Mass by Telephone by calling 01642 130 120 at any time for the cost of a local phone call. Mass begins a few seconds after the phone is answered.

Support for Quarantined or Isolating Parishioners

If you would like help or support during lockdown, please contact the parish office or call Chris & Liz Burger on 01886 832729. (Your details will be used by parishioners to contact you only for so long as you wish us to do so. Your information will be held securely on the basis of your consent with the parish and those parishioners who contact you in accordance with the diocesan privacy policy at <http://www.birminghamdioces.org.uk/privacy-policy>. St Joseph's parish is part of the Archdiocese of Birmingham, registered charity number 234216.)

Praying the Angelus Together Every Saturday at 12 noon, a group of St Joseph's parishioners meet on Zoom to pray the Angelus. This is followed by a short time of chat together! If you would like to join this Saturday prayer time, please send an email to the Parish Office by midday on Fridays: stjoseph.malvern@rcaob.org.uk.

Current shortages at Malvern Hills Foodbank: anti bacterial wipes, kitchen rolls, J cloths, hair shampoo for men and women, bars of soap, washing powder (all sizes), washing up liquid, tinned fruit, tins of stewed steak, minced beef, chicken in a sauce, jars of jam, pkts of smash.
