REFLECTION
THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Exodus 24: 3–8; Ps. 115 (116);
Hebrews 9:11–15; Mark 14:12–16.22–26

On this feast of Corpus Christi the readings show how God's plan moves towards a new covenant of love through Christ. For the Israelites in the First Reading, blood is the symbol of life, and Moses sprinkles blood from sacrificed bulls on both the altar and the people to signify their desire to enter into a covenant with God. In the Second Reading Jesus is both the priest offering the sacrifice and the victim being offered; his own blood replacing that of animals. In the Gospel, Jesus shares a meal with his dearest friends, giving himself in the bread and wine, a gift of love and friendship. On the following day, Good Friday, Jesus will freely give his own life, a sacrifice made out of his great love for the world. Here begins a new relationship between God and his people. As we celebrate the Eucharist today, let us offer to God a promise of undivided love, and an offering of ourselves to the service of others.

Music at Mass thanks to Mary, Bernadette, Paul and Edd for contributing to music during the pandemic. In looking forward to when current restrictions on singing and instrumental playing are lifted, we are looking for others to join this aspect of worship by offering their talents of singing or instrumental playing. For anyone who might be interested, this wouldn't be a weekly commitment but an opportunity to use your talents every few weeks. Please give this some consideration and contact the parish office if you would be willing to serve the Parish in this way. There is no restriction on age. Thank you very much. - Liz Burger
