

Luca Mainini's drawing of Pentecost from Lock Down Children's Liturgy on Zoom.

Amelia Morgan's Pentecost drawing also from Lock Down Children's Liturgy on Zoom.

Michael Townson making a coffee table...

... and enjoying a well-earned cuppa.

Mary Carroll's attempt at her mother's coconut cake recipe ... plain flour is hard to find, so she tried self-raising and this is the result! Fortunately the loaves turned out fine.

A pair of blue-tits Anne Lewis rescued. They had not fledged but their nest was under corrugated iron roofing and the sun was beating down on it so they had flung themselves out. They successfully fledged about 4 days later.

Eloise Mills making rainbow ice lollies

Eloise with a chocolate and strawberry duck.

Eloise making flower...

... soup!

Bluebells from Win Crawford's walk.

Anne Lewis's sister-in-law, Sarah, felted these amazing male and female chaffinches.

Rebecca, Ella and Niamh Hogan near White Leaved Oak.

Ella Hogan in the stocks!

Rebecca Hogan taking captivity in her stride.

The rain brought out the first poppy of the year in The Craig's garden.

Win Crawford has been spending lots of time in her garden.

The Mills Family have been camping in their garden.

Lela the dog out on a walk with Eloise Mills. Lela can carry up to eight sticks in her mouth!

Clock and Pocket, The Mills Family's cats.

Pepper out for a walk with Win Crawford.

Pepper in a puddle.

Pepper cooling down in a stream.

Al Hood's dog, Tigger, after frolicking in a muddy puddle.