THIRTY- SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Year C

9 - 10 November 2019

'I shall be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory, O Lord'

Mass book page 161

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

"Do this in memory of me." Lk22:19

The memories we recall this Remembrance Sunday should spur us forward in the search for true harmony and peace throughout the world. As the Lord commanded the apostles to "Do this in memory of me" we gather this day praying for the graces of the great sacrifice of Calvary to engulf the whole world that we may live in the harmony for which Christ prayed; and to our fallen we say "We will remember them!".

This special service is an opportunity to pray for ourselves or for family and friends who need healing in any way. There is a Prayer Tree set up in the church on which you are able to hang labels with the names of those you wish to pray for (FIRST NAME ONLY PLEASE). If you are unable to come to the healing service you may still write a label and hang it on the tree which will remain for a week after the healing service.

Please leave the envelopes with the list of names in the post box or in the collection bags. Every Saturday of November names submitted in the week will be read at the 10am Mass. An offering is welcome but you don't have to.

A PARISH MASS FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED IN THE PAST YEAR will be celebrated at 7pm on Thursday, 28th November. A candle will be prepared for each of the deceased and if you wish you can make a donation of 50p for the candle. These candles will be blessed and lit on the Mass of the day and you will be asked to carry them to the sanctuary during the Mass. They can be taken home after Mass.

We would like to involve more people in the group, especially the young people of the parish. All are welcome to come and chat about what we can do to make a difference. To quote from Pope Francis' Laudato Si', "The Time Is Now".
