THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Year A REFLECTION

10th to 11th December 2022

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Isaiah 35: 1-6, 10Psalm 146:6-10 James 5:7-10 Matthew 11: 2-11

For most children, Christmas is a time of great anticipation: What will Santa bring us? How will we spend our Christmas break? Today's readings talk about anticipation, preparation, patience, and joy in a much more important context. In our reading from Isaiah the prophet speaks of the signs that will accompany the arrival of the Messiah — the blind will see, the deaf will hear, the lame will "leap like a deer," and the mute will sing. The mission of Jesus in the Gospel perfectly fulfils these expectations: "the blind see again, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear and the dead are raised to life and the good news proclaimed to the poor." When Jesus tells us to follow him, he is telling us to continue his mission, because his ministry becomes our ministry. In our world, many people are blind and deaf. Many people are too lame to go to church. A lot have died in their faith and due to poverty, people are denied the basic necessities of life. Jesus is calling us to carry on his mission in all these
