Fr Naz & Jithin at Barbara Innes's funeral.
Barbara's family gave Fr Naz and Jithin some of the flowers from Barbara's funeral. Fr Naz placed in front of the altar at St Joseph's for all to enjoy during YouTube Mass.

Peter Armstrong repairing his military models.

Model of a French Lancer, Waterloo, 18 June 1815.

Beverley Cherry sent in these pictures of what she and the girls have been up to during lockdown. In addition to marching up the Hills, they have been doing a lot of science experiments such as making sugar and salt solution geodes in egg shells and making art by placing leaves on photo sensitive paper in the sun (below).
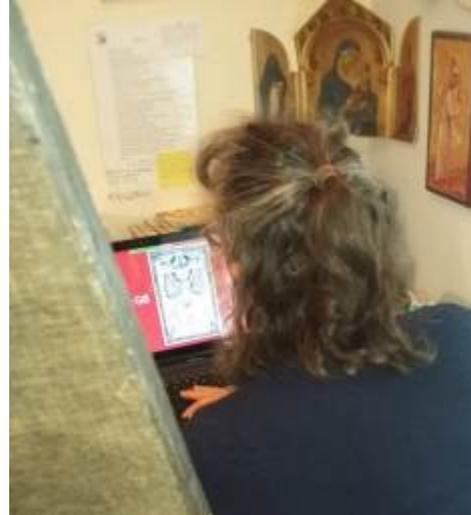

Paul Lewis as the Statue of Liberty. Anne Lewis writes: "We had to create a video of ourselves for a compilation video for my sister's 60th birthday next week. I danced to Liza Minelli's version of 'New York, New York' and Paul did this."

Carol Ann Harnett teaching Children's Liturgy via Zoom.
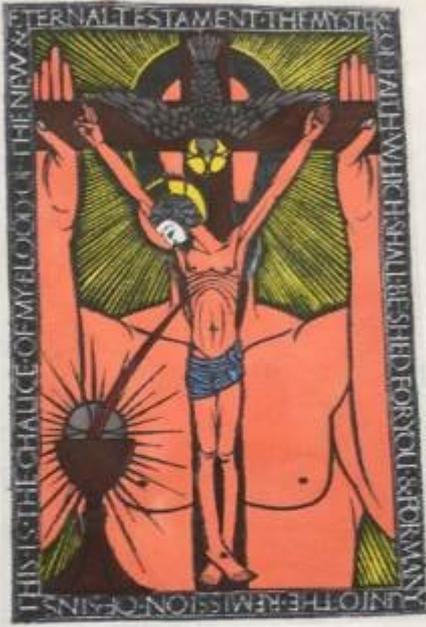

Carol Ann sent out pictures of the Trinity which children could colour in ahead of Zoom Children's Liturgy …

… and then share with others during the Zoom session. These lovely drawings were also shared on the Parish Facebook page.

Luke's second drawing of the Trinity for Children's Liturgy.

A trio of poppies from the Craig Family's garden complete with a bee in the right-most flower.

Paul Lewis out for an early morning run.
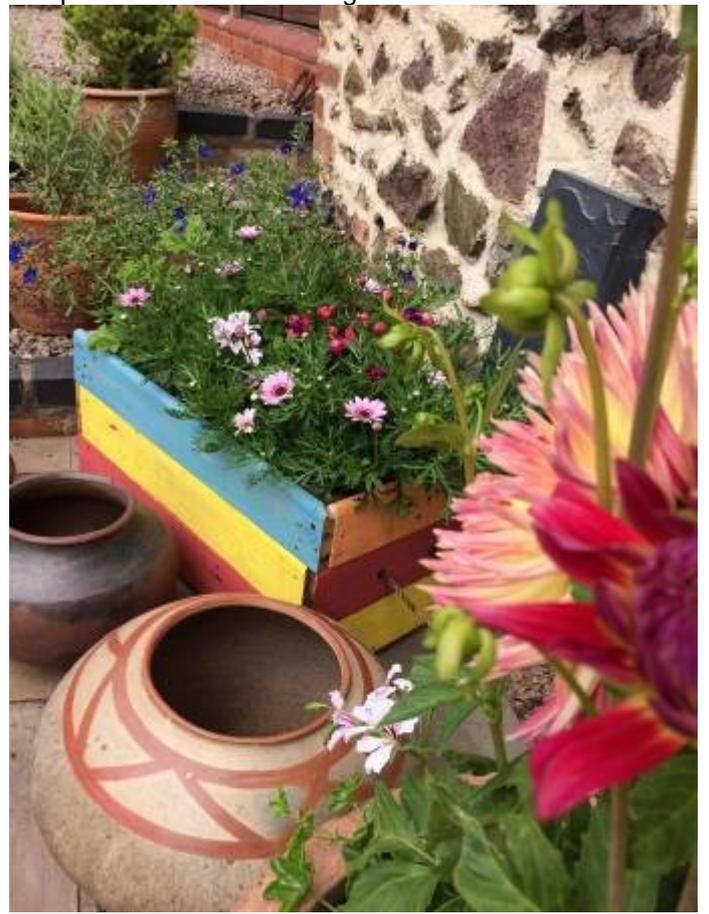

Anne Lewis's lovely new flower box and African pots.

Angela and Chris Park celebrated his mum's, Louisa's, 100th birthday through the window of her nursing home last Sunday. Chris reports that nursing home staff were absolutely brilliant and the Queen sent a card.

Louisa enthroned on green velvet and holding a collage of family photos which make up the number 100.

Viv and Allan were caught in a cloud burst on the wildflower meadow at Castlemorton.

Hollybed Millpond at Golden Valley from Viv and Allan.

Viv and Allan spotted a wild orchid on Poolbrook Common.