Year C

14 – 15 September 2019

'O Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to the next.'

Mass book page 133

Dear Parishioners, as you all know Fr Naz is now in Malawi, he has arrived safely and is enjoying being with his family and friends. Anne is also on leave until the end of September. Please check the Parish Office opening hours each week if you need to contact me. I will try to come into the office three times each week so please feel free to stop by or call within the office hours (overleaf).
If you need to contact someone outside the office hours then the main contact is Chris Burger on 01886 832 729. If you need to contact a priest please contact Canon Brian McGinley 01905 22574. Please check for details of Masses/Eucharistic Services below or on the notice board. I wish all of you a blessed week ~ Edyta

PARISH CENSUS Due to the General Data Protection Regulations which came into force in May 2018 the parish is obliged to protect details of all parishioners. We are now using a new safe database on which parishioners' details will be stored. Please would every parish household fill in a census form which will provide the parish with up to date information, and, additionally, give, or refuse, permission for your details to be shared within the parish for parish activities? Each form has room for 4 family members. If you have more members please use an additional form. Census forms may be returned using the postbox in the narthex. Thank you all for your help with this task.
