SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Year C

15TH – 16TH January 2022

REFLECTION

Isaiah 62:1-5 Psalm 96:1-3, 7-10 1Corinthians 12:4-11 John 2:1-12

It is important to think of these first weeks after Christmas as a season of “epiphanies.” The liturgy is showing us who Jesus is and what He has revealed about our relationship with God. Last week and the week before, the imagery was royal and filial—Jesus is the new-born king of the Jews who makes us coheirs of Israel’s promise, beloved children of God. Last week in the liturgy we went to a baptism. This week we’re at a wedding. We’re being shown another dimension of our relationship with God. If we’re sons and daughters of God, it’s because we’ve married into the family. Throughout the Bible, marriage is the symbol of the covenant relationship God desires with His chosen people. He is the groom, humanity His beloved and sought-after bride. We see this reflected beautifully in today’s First Reading. When Israel breaks the covenant, she is compared to an unfaithful spouse. But God promises to take her back, to “espouse” her to Him forever in an everlasting covenant. That’s why in today’s Gospel Jesus performs His first public “sign” at a wedding feast. Jesus is the divine bridegroom, calling us to His royal wedding feast. By His New Covenant, He will become “one flesh” with all humanity in the Church. By our baptism, each of us has been betrothed to Christ as a bride to a husband. The new wine that Jesus pours out at today’s feast is the gift of the Holy Spirit given to His bride and body, as today’s Epistle says. This is the “salvation” announced to the “families of nations” in today’s Psalm.

LIFEPATH MALVERN 2022 - June 20th - 24th 2022

is an event for primary school children run by volunteers from many different Malvern churches. There will be a Lifepath Tea on Jan 29th in Great Malvern Priory from 2.30 – 4pm for new and existing volunteers. Please contact the Priory office for more details (office@greatmalvernpriory.org.uk) or Rosamund on 01684 572165. For more information about Life Path, go to: <https://www.greatmalvernpriory.org.uk/lifepath>

Repair Café will take place on Sat 15th Jan at Malvern Cube from 10am to 1pm. The usual team will be there including the clock repairer but, unfortunately, the electronic/IT repairer will be absent. Tool and knife sharpening will also be available.

This Sunday is Peace Sunday. There will be a Second Collection for PAX CHRISTI which promotes peace and nonviolence through parishes, schools and social media. Their website suggests many ways we can all become better peacemakers. Visit: <https://paxchristi.org.uk/peace-sunday-2022/> Pope Francis asks us to think about 'Education, work and dialogue between generations: tools for building lasting peace'. How can we harness the gifts and energy of all generations in the work of peace making?
