WEEDS AMONG WHEAT

Wisdom 12:13,16-19 Psalm 86: 5-6, 9-10, 15-16 Romans 8:26-27 Matthew 13:24-43

This week's readings make us ask the question: Why does God permit the evil to grow alongside the good? "Let them both grow till harvest." Why does He permit some to reject the Word of His kingdom? Because, as we sing in today's Psalm, God is slow to anger and abounding in kindness. He is just, Jesus assures us—evildoers and those who cause others to sin will be thrown into the fiery furnace at the end of the age. But by His patience, God is teaching us—that above all He desires repentance, and the gathering of all nations to worship Him & to glorify His name. So we should not be deceived or lose heart when we see weeds among the wheat, truth and holiness mixed with error, injustice and sin. For now, He makes His sun rise on the good and the bad (Mtt. 5:45). But the harvest draws near. Let's work that we might be numbered among the righteous children—who will shine like the sun in the kingdom of the Father.
