REFLECTION

Genesis 9:8-15

Psalm 25: 4-9

1Peter 3: 18-22

Mark 1:12-15

Lent bids us to return to the innocence of our baptism. As Noah and his family were saved through the waters of the deluge, we were saved through the waters of Baptism, Peter reminds us in today's Epistle. And God's covenant with Noah in today's First Reading marked the start of a new world. But it also prefigured a new and greater covenant between God and His creation. We see that new covenant and that new creation begin in today's Gospel. Jesus is portrayed as the new Adam—the beloved son of God, living in harmony with the wild beasts, being served by angels. Like Adam, He too is tempted by the devil. But while Adam fell, giving reign to sin and death, Jesus is victorious.

This is the good news, the "gospel of God" that He proclaims. Like Jesus, and Israel before Him, we have passed through the baptismal waters only to be driven into the wilderness—a world filled with afflictions and tests of our faithfulness. As we begin this holy season, let us renew our baptismal vows—to repent and believe the gospel.

MAKE AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

If you cannot attend Mass, you may make an Act of Spiritual Communion by saying:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

FAMILY FAST DAY IS ON FRIDAY 26 FEBRUARY
CAFOD Lent - The Big
Walk for Water

"I am wasting my life. I am a young man; I should be doing something else." These are difficult words to hear. They were spoken by Abdella who lives in an extremely remote and mountainous part of Ethiopia. It is one of the hottest places on earth. He spends nearly all his time collecting water just to keep his family alive. He walks for ten hours a day and is exhausted. He has no time to lead the life he wants, he must keep walking. Could you join Abdella and Walk for Water? Could you take on the challenge of walking 10,000 steps a day throughout Lent to raise awareness and funds? They can be walked, run or even danced if you prefer. Do you know anyone who would enjoy this challenge? Could you join our Big Walk for Water on Saturday 20 February at 2pm, walking alongside Abdella as part of our virtual event? Could you encourage others to join, your friends, parishioners or family? To join in & for more information go to the CAFOD website <https://cafod.org.uk/Fundraise/Organise-an-event/Big-Walk-for-Water> . And look ....
