

Fr Naz conducting Exposition.

Luca Mainini doing his home schooling... note the juxtaposition of traditional school desk and laptop computer.

Peter Armstrong with his 1000-piece jigsaw of...

... The Flying Scotsman! The steam, clouds and tracks were particularly tricky.

Peter Armstrong with his 1000-piece jigsaw of ...

... The Trooping of the Colour! The flags, uniforms and trees took a long time to sort out. If anyone would like to borrow this puzzle, contact the Parish Office.

Liz and Chris Burgers' family 'gathered' for a Zoom Birthday party to celebrate Oliver's and Grace's birthday and each household made a cake ...

... an astronaut cake for Oliver...

... and astronaut and princess cake to celebrate Oliver turning 9 and Grace turning 7...

... and a Hers 'n' His cake with a slice already gobbled!

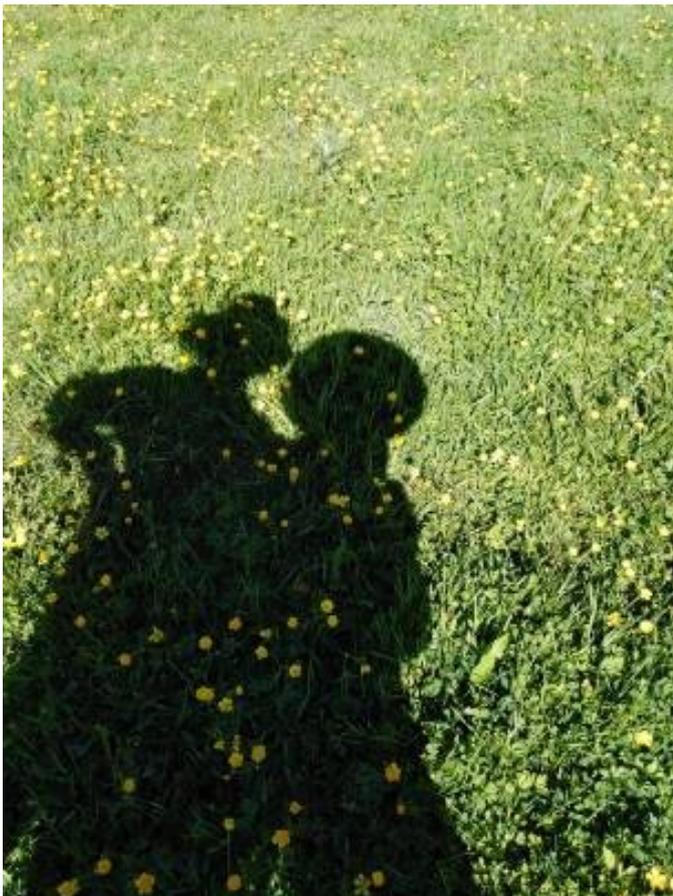

Chris Burger had been doing a family history project and wanted to share this photo of his father and uncle from the 1920s.

◆ FLIGHT A $349

Haast ↔ Paringa
Coastal Route

Fly along the Westcoast's most rugged and picturesque coastlines, spotting dolphins and New Zealand fur seals along the way. Landing included.
Allow 25 minutes.

Vince Conway sent this flyer which he collected during a recent trip to New Zealand: "We were particularly pleased that the trip included landing the plane."

Viv Jones's and Alan's shadows on the buttercups.

Wisteria in Viv Jones's garden

The view at the end of Viv Jones's & Alan's Ascension Day walk.

Exposition at St Joseph's.

At St Joseph's School, children have been experimenting with different materials whilst building dens.

Olivia and Dean in their den.