FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Year A

25th – 26th February 2023

REFLECTION

Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7

Psalms 51

Romans 5:12-19

Matthew 4: 1-11

There is a drama unfolding between First Reading and Gospel. It is a drama between the first man, Adam, and the new Adam, Jesus. By the First Adam's disobedience, sin and condemnation entered the world, and death came to reign overall. By the obedience of the Second Adam, grace abounded, and life came to reign for all. The first Adam, however, put the Lord his God to the test. He gave in to the serpent's temptation, trying to seize for himself all that God had already promised him. But in His hour of temptation, Jesus prevailed where Adam failed—and drove the devil away. Still, we sin after the pattern of the transgression of the first Adam. Like Adam, we let sin in the door when we entertain doubts about God's promises, when we forget to call on Him in our hours of temptation. But the grace won for us by Christ's obedience means that sin is no longer our master. As we begin this season of repentance, we can be confident in His compassion, that He will create in us a new heart. As we do in today's Psalm, we can sing joyfully of our salvation, renewed in His presence.

WEEK OF GUIDED PRAYER, MALVERN March 19th to 25th Would you like the opportunity to deepen your relationship with God, with the personal help of a Prayer Guide? Members of the Worcester Diocesan Network of Spiritual Directors, who have done this in Malvern for the last 4 years, can offer you 45 minutes each day from Monday to Friday. The week starts on the Sunday (19th) & ends with a group meeting of the participants & prayer guides at 6 Cowleigh Road (Gospel Hall) where you could meet your guide & arrange times and locations etc. As it is Lent, a theme has been chosen, "Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows" (Isaiah 53). However, as the week is about your personal faith journey, you will be free to follow on from the Isaiah quotation or not. For more information, see the leaflets in the narthex or contact Rev Sylvia Coke Woods on 07533917150 or sylvia.cokewoods@gmail.com OR Jane Long on 01684 566101 or email, janerlong@icloud.com by March 1st if possible.

Live Simply Low Energy Sundays. We often make a conscious effort to keep Sundays quiet to rest but do we let our devices and ultimately the planet do the same? Try swapping your current activities for lower energy alternatives. For example, you could swap watching TV for reading books and going shopping for going for walks or spending time outside.
