

Tuesday Reflection 31 August 2021

The visit of a bishop is a noteworthy event in the life of a parish, and so it was last Sunday. Only this time it was not about the bishop, it was to acknowledge the importance of the role played by the laity in the life of the Church, a role which is often underplayed, even though laypeople probably comprise about 99% of the membership of the Church.

But what is the role of the laity?

Please let me have your thoughts - m.townson1@btinternet.com

to be continued

Michael Townson